

Advisory Council

The College of Business held its annual Advisory Council meeting on December 8, 1998. The Council consists of business executives from throughout the United States who provide guidance and vision to the College of Business. Throughout the year, meetings are held between the Advisory Council Executive Committee and the Dean to discuss current business and academic issues. This year's Advisory Council Meeting will be on October 5, 1999.

The following is a listing of the current Advisory Council members. The members of the Executive Committee are denoted with an asterisk. The Chair of the Advisory Council is Greg Lea.
